

Letting Go

Sometimes I do, sometimes I don't,
Sometimes I feel like you don't want me
Sometimes I'm up, sometimes I'm down,
Sometimes I wear the face of a clown
There's no way to know, where this all ends
No way to change the way that you're feeling Nobody will, nobody should, nobody else can validate my Life
Is about letting go, learning to accept yourself
And one more thing you should know....
Sometimes I just want to be on my own
La la la la la la
Letting Go
If I don't talk about how I feel,
I just prefer to spare the heartache Say what you want, spit it all out, but please do not waste my time by complaining
We all have our shit, we carry around,
The point is to not let it weigh you down
It all makes no sense, so let it all go, Remember your part of something greater
Life is about letting go,
Learning to accept yourself
I do not care for control
Sometimes I just want to be on my own
La, la, la, la, la, la Letting Go

I'm Not Losing You

Long time ago, and many miles away,
I could not see I was running away

You came along, and changed my view
I'm not losing you
When they took my son,
I was living in fear,
I disappeared into the years
You came along, the sky turned blue
I'm not losing you
Now you're growing up,
It's happening so fast,
I've learned to live with the pains of my past It's hard to believe that life could feel new,
I'm not losing you
As you walk through this life,
Hear what I say, give more than you take,
Live for each day
If I'm not around then you know it's true
I love you, I love you, I love you, I love you

Get Lost

We met up late on the beach that night, there was fire in the sky, and that look was in your eyes, Was the middle of June and we were way out west, where the days never end and the sun never sets
So tell me what it is that you want to hear,
I can't turn back or relieve your fears
I can see that you don't know, but can you see that I don't care
If you're gonna do it, gotta do it right,
I can't play savior of your life
But I'll guarantee you this,
they're gonna pay that price
There was no one else on the road that night, so we left it all behind, and vanished out of sight

When morning broke on that golden sand,
The seagulls sang of freedom in our land
So tell me what it is that you want to hear,
I can't turn back or relieve your fears
I can see that you don't know, but can you see that I don't care
If you're gonna do it, gotta do it right,
I can't play savior of your life
But I'll guarantee you this,
They're gonna pay that price
And if we get one more chance in this life,
We wouldn't throw it away
So we took all we had, and all we could steal and just ran
And if we ever rise up from the fight, despite all the damage and cost
Sometimes in life it's better to just get lost

No More

If you walk right out the door just like you did before,
Remember what I'll say
And if you break this broken heart, tear it all apart,
Remember what I'll say
That I won't take you back again, cuz you just aint my friend
And I don't want you back no more
If you up and walk away, I know just what you'll say,
But it'll be a lie
if you stay locked in your lie, for that other girl, remember what you've done
Cuz I won't let you get back in, you can try and try again
But I don't want you back No More
And it doesn't really matter what you say,
Doesn't really matter what you did
All the memories we made you went and threw away

Writing down these words to say goodbye,
The ten years that we had were just a lie
Now I'm gonna pick myself back up and start again
And whatever lies ahead, it's up to me,
I'm tired of all the pain of yesterday
And to you there's really nothing left for me to say
All the time I had alone, when no place felt like home, and nowhere left to go Time just led me to this place, and the past I had to face, to get on with my life And all that's gone can't be replaced, just the memory of your face
But I don't want you back
No More

GED

We were walkin and we were talkin, about goin'	it's out of sight somewhere we'd never been before	But this time around I've got the feelin that I jus
You said you'd like to see, mountains way out	wont bite west, I said lets get Rocky mountain high	Cause people do change, but you don't Get on that big bird and fly	You wanted me to beg, but I won't Ooh baby tell me now, are you	So this is all the time that I have for you gonna let me down	This is all the time that I have for you
Are you gonna change my world,	Yes this is all the time that I have for you... '
Will you be my girl	You're so lame Springtime finally landed in, felt like time to	We met up years ago, when I was young and start again, summer came a creepin up around,	rough and all those girls were back in town	Back then I thought that together you made me
I remember all those Friday nights, start	look so tough of the weekend felt so right	Now the damage is plain to see I think You hangin' on my arm,

In the days before we all moved on Ooh baby tell me now, are you gonna let me down
Are you gonna change my world, will you be my girl
Life has changed so much since then,
But I can't really remember when Think about you all the time, if you're not home daydreaming's fine
Now I gotta let ya go, the band is knockin' on the door
They said I'm too old for writing songs, take another look and now I'm gone
Are you gonna change my world, will you be my girl

You're So Lame

Well I heard that you think that I think that it's alright
And from the way that your carrying on you think it's out of sight
But this time around I've got the feelin that I just wont bite
Cause people do change, but you don't
You wanted me to beg, but I won't
So this is all the time that I have for you
This is all the time that I have for you
Yes this is all the time that I have for you... '
You're so lame
We met up years ago, when I was young and rough
Back then I thought that together you made me look so tough
Now the damage is plain to see I think

I've had enough
Cause people do change, but you don't
You wanted me to crawl, but I won't
So this is all the time that I have for you
This is all the time that I have for you
Yes this is all the time that I have for you.....
You're so lame
Ooh maybe
Ooh you're drivin' me crazy
Ooh somebody save me
You were the first good feelin' that I ever knew
And with all the pain inside, I fell in love with you
But you make me feel so bad and change is overdue
Cause people do change, but you don't
You wanted me to die, but I won't
So this is all the time that I have for you
This is all the time that I have for you
Yes this is all the time that I have for you.....
You're so lame

Shine

Time can't alter the truth,
Blame is just an excuse,
Glory is all your head,
Comfort is just a mirage
Step from the dark, to the light, it's alright Let it go, if you want to hold on Give away, if you want to receive Fear is that look on your face
Love is the blood that we taste
Step from the dark, to the light, out of sight
Shine your light
Shine on the boys and the girls in the fight

They live in darkness, but their eyes are open wide
Waiting for you to come and turn the tide
Waiting for their turn to shine
(Shine)
Let your light shine on them
Shine on all the children
On all the boys and the girls
On all that's livin'
In our beautiful world
And light our way
Through these dark dark dark dark days
Its time to stop blamin'
Show a little compassion
And love one other
Like its goin out of fashion
Give your brother a chance
And he'll be free at last
Shine your light
Shine your love light
Let your light shine... Let your light shine

Cosmic Comeuppance

You can't tell me what I know ain't true
You just fell for their self serving lies
Now we see history bring to bear
All our ills that you pretend aint there
Push out all those things you feel inside
Time will deal with those who fed us lies
Karma , Karma
Now I'll tell you what you need to hear
Your way of life is gonna disappear

We get one chance to join the human race
Wipe the shit eating grin off your face
Push out all those things you feel inside
Time will deal with those who fed us lies
Karma Karma Cosmic Comeuppance
Karma, Karma, Karma, Karma
Da da da da da da da da da da da da
Cosmic Comeuppance will find you today

The Picking Up

When we spend time together
Please don't think about forever
Cause if you really want to make things better Live for the day that we've been given
You and I moved on you see
All that's left is the picking up
And that's alright with me
I can't chase a dream that's fleeting Or try to mend a heart that's breaking
The time has come to say goodbye again
And bid farewell to another friend
You and I moved on you see
All that's left is the picking up
And that's alright with me
